Hi there,

Flying Verse warrants a look in the 3m veterans' handicap chase at Doncaster today (3.10).

The 11-year-old has won nine times, six over fences, and he likes this good ground. He is rated on 105, 2lb below his last winning mark, and these flat tracks suit him. He likes to be handy and could be hard to catch off his low weight with a good 3lb claimer on board.

Tolstoy runs from the AW feature of the Weekend Card in the 6f 71-90 at Lingfield (3.00). The four-year-old has run from a 7lb higher mark than today but he is bred for further and needs a strong pace to aim at. He may get that here but I would prefer to see him tackle a mile or more.

There has been strong market support for newcomer Alpha Zulu in the 6f novice stakes at Newcastle (6.45).

I suggest Flying Verse each-way today.

Bye for now

Marten
